TOKYO – KAMAKURA

TOKYO

Check-in: 8:45 a.m. at TOKYO PRINCE HOTEL.

You board your Tokaido Adventure Tour Motor Coach this morning. Heading south for Kamakura on the sea, you visit a modern factory, either Hitachi electric appliance plant or Kirin brewery.

KAMAKURA

Kamakura is noted for its huge bronze image of Buddha, called "Daibutsu." Then continue your drive along the sunny Pacific coast to Enoshima or "Picture Island," a stone's throw off the beach. After lunch at Enoshima Yacht Club, your journey resumes along the Tokaido Highway to the old stage town of Odawara. Here you swing inland toward the Hakone mountains. Tonight you dine and sleep at FUJIYA HOTEL with its exquisite Japanese garden.

HAKONE – NIHON-DAIRA

HAKONE

The sylvan beauty of Fuji-Hakone-Izu National Park awaits you when you leave the hotel on a scenic drive to Lake Hakone. You will see an exciting view of majestic Mt. Fuji across the lake.

NIHON-DAIRA

Heading for Nihon-Daira Plateau, you pass many old stage towns depicted in Hiroshige's famous wood-block prints. On the way you visit a private home with a lovely Japanese garden. Around noon you arrive at Nippon-Daira Kanko Hotel for lunch. Your drive continues down to Hamamatsu through orange and tea plantations, stopping en route at a girls' high school except holiday seasons to see how Japanese younger generations are studying. (Visit Tokaido Historical Museum instead on holiday seasons.) Your dinner and accommodations are at SAGANO or HAMAMATSU HOTEL, a typical Japanese inn.
